

Ken is a terrific financial planner and all around good guy. He works with clients to analyze their financial situation from the ground up by carefully interviewing each family for their specific needs. He then finds ways to streamline current financial issues and send more money flowing to savings, retirement, protection for the family, and other options. I would highly recommend Ken

Pam Jones

Realtor, Long and Foster